

1 July 1945

Dear Tommy + Family:

I am sorry as hell, but I don't seem to be able to get ahold of a Jerry rifle. You see when the war ended they were either surrendered or collected by the army and turned into collecting points where they are destroyed. I will keep on looking and I may be able to pick one up, but don't plan on it. I am sorry I didn't send one when we were still fighting for they were plentiful then.

I might tell you of the Country I am in now. It is called Bavaria. I am on the Danube river near ~~the~~ the Austrian Czechoslovakia border. The part of Czechoslovakia I am near is called Bohemia.

Contrary to all songs and stories the Danube river is not blue but a dirty greenish brown I know for I have been on it in a boat and as I sit in my office writing this letter I am looking out on to the river. The biggest city close to us is Passau a very old city established by the Romans. It has a large Cathedral in which is the largest pipe organ in the world. There is also an old Castle there where the division has turned into a rest center for G-I's and a part of the Castle is a club for officers. Among the entertainers are many Hungarians (gypsies) musicians acrobats and we even have a Circus of our own it is also Hungarian.

This part of Germany is a farming country with rolling hills and many trees. we are about 3 & 4 hours by bus from (Buchenwald (I am not sure of the spelling)) which was Hitler's hang out. From the southern part of our occupation area the Alps are plainly visible. The people especially the peasants have very colorful costumes. The men wear short <sup>leather</sup> ~~tanned~~ pants bright green or red jackets and very fancy hats. We are not very far from Murnau the place where the Nazis used to hold their big pep meetings.
 This is all very beautiful but I wish to hell I were out of it. With a little luck we will no doubt be home by Xmas then probably go to the Pacific. I hope not.

if I could hit a pheasant it has been so long since I have tried. Maybe if I had my Tommy gun I could scare hell out of one.

So long old fellow
Jerry

22 Sept 45

Dear Sis,

I just returned from a 7 day leave on the French Riviera. I had a hell of a swell time. We flew to ~~San~~ Nice from Munich crossing the alps on both trips. The place or town where I stayed was Cannes, staying in the best hotels and getting tight with Mrs Rich bitch the cream of French society in a enjoyable time for a short time, but at the end of 7 days you begin to need sleep and run low on cock ~~and~~ are ready to come home.

I think I'll be wanting to use some of those shells. I am doing my damndest to get transferred to a unit which is coming home. I have 94 points which makes my chance of a transfer pretty good. This outfit is almost like a new division because we have had so many officers & men shift out in the past few weeks and are getting new joiners in from other outfits.

You might tell any body that was going to write to send letters to our address in Seattle from now on and contact the Desert News if you will to send my answering copies to Seattle.

Don't write me any more for I am pretty sure of leaving the Division in a week or 2 to start for home.

Love

Terry
If I get a chance I will write you again.

Hillb Talks:

Just a note to let you know I am still O.K. and living in anticipation that this war will soon be over. I believe this push is going to do the trick. The best part of it all is spring is in the air and it won't be anything like that hell hole in the Ardennes.

Midge keeps me pretty well informed on the going of the family. I guess she gets pretty blue once in a while although she never mentions it. Over here we have a safety valve in that we can go on beaucoup parties when we are out of the lines.

I had a funny experience 8-day an attached unit platoon walked into the C.P. His Co. C.O. Company Commander started to introduce him when I recognized him as a Red

I was in the CCC's with from Aberdeen.

I also have had a couple of opportunities to see my brother in Law who was in Belgium when I was there.
I guess it's a pretty small world after all.

Keep me posted on the home front.

By the way I noted by the "De Sint Ruus" where Wanda Barber's husband is a prisoner.
I'll bet he's sweating his one out.

Dear Sis

Just a note to let you know I am O.K. As you can see I am somewhere in Germany again after a damn hot time in a very cold Belgium. Fortunately the weather is begining to warm up but I hope this damn war is over before summer rolls around. I really believe that the Germans are on their last legs.

I know what the Rhine River looks like and with a little luck I hope to see Berlin some day before too long. There isn't a hell of a lot to write about so I will sign off

Dear Sis:

I received your package 8 day.
It has been so long since I have had a good cigar that I smoked Tommy's first so I would enjoy it more.

Midge keeps me pretty well posted on all the family even though I don't have time and don't write often when I do have time.

I bought several bottles of good perfume for Midge. I am sending it through a little at a time. If it goes through O.K.
I'll mail her some more.
Otherwise I'll hang on to it until the war is over. I have been buying all the Chone #5 + #22. I can get the fairly cheap ~~but~~ in 7 rows but expensive as hell in America off I remember Magnard Mullenbergs number correctly mine is 2 less than his.

I sent Midge some cameras and I have one very good one that I am carrying. It belonged to a Jerry Major but the son of a bitch won't miss it now.

I took 2 rolls of film, but didn't understand all the gadgets in the pictures didn't turn out.
I think I have learned how to run it so should get some good pictures of Adolph's country.

I'll send you a good Jerry flag as soon as we get into Germany.

Thanks again to you & the Red for the Cigars

Tell George to have a jug on hand because I am going to celebrate from New York to Seattle. I have sent

I can dream Ant I.

So long for now

8 Sept 44

Dear Sis.

Just got your letter, dated Aug 10. to day. If you don't send them airmail they certainly come slow.

I don't have a suitcase to send you but here is the Caber sent from a summer sailor summer uniform. It might make a nice pillow cover or something. I don't pick up many souvenirs. They are too hard to carry. I have a nice Camera & a couple of pistols.
I did send a few home.

Things look pretty good from the sounds of the two broadcasts.
I sure hope to hell it ends pretty soon as I am getting sore with it. We have a lot of fun and have a few big parties, but it is still going to be nice to have it end.

I have my testament I think it is in my field bag and as good as new.

Well I will bring them to a close hello & all the folk.

22 July 44

Dear Sirs & Kids;

Just a note to let you know I am still O.K. Things get a little tough now and then, but I think we have seen about as tough going as we can expect.

Now all I am doing is waiting for the damn germs to throw in the sponge. When that time comes your little brother is going to do a hell of a lot of celebrating and I do mean celebrate. I haven't spent a cent since I left England so I can well imagine I will be able to make up for lost time. Some one just mentioned that tomorrow was Sunday. Every day is the same in Germany as far as I am concerned.
Say hello to the folks and tell Bess I received her letter & will write when possible Love Furry major Brown asked me who I was writing to. He said to tell you to buy all the whiskey you can and we will stop in on our way back to the Coast.

I wonder if I will get to Berlin and Paris. We missed New York and London so it wouldn't surprise me a whole lot to be sent back to the states before I get to see either one of those cities.

well it looks like I have a lot of work to do so I will close this and get busy.

As ever
Terry

2 July 44

Dear Sis & family:

just a note to let you know I am O.K. although I have opened more Cans since I left France than I ever opened in my life before.

We get good rations, cigarettes and some candy. However they neglected some of us by not giving us any Cigars. The ones you sent me were O.K. I'm not particular what kind they are just so they are Cigars.

I think I wrote and told you I was in France. We are in combat over here. In a way its O.K. because the sooner we get into things the quicker it will be over and baby that can't be so quick to suit me.

Once I get back to Seattle you will probably never see me again. Cause I think my traveling days are over.

Can see they have pants on with a kind of smock or apron on over the top and a belt cinched up around their waist.

I have been trying to make my self a cup of coffee using heat tabs and my Canteen cup. "Heat tabs" are a white pill about $\frac{3}{4}$  inch in diameter and  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch thick when you light them with a match they give off quite a little heat. In fact it takes 3 of them to heat a Canteen cup of water.

O Boy this night life is killing me I find that I can smoke 4 cigarettes drink one cup of coffee and write about  $1\frac{1}{2}$  letters in an hour.

Well sis keep me posted and don't expect regular answers from me from now on (as if I ever answered regularly I know I beat you to it).

25 June 44

Dear Sirs & kids:

As Tom may have told you by this time I am in France. Nothing much of anything that I can talk about and still keep my letters right.

One thing that we do have that is different from England and that is sunny warm weather.

I am spending my tour of duty, which happens to be from 0200 - 0400 this morning, catching up on my correspondence, and if I have time maybe I can study a little French. The kids would get a kick out of the kids here. They all have their hair cut or hacked off in kind of a Buster Brown affair.

 If you get what I am driving it also they wear heavy shoes either wooden or wooden <sup>soles</sup> with leather tops. The little boys have a queer looking costume. From the front it looks like a dress but when you see them from the side you

It got to be kind of a wild party before the evening was over.

I haven't a whole lot to say or rather I have a lot to say, but can't say it so will close if you have Wendell's address I would like to have it. I never know, but what I may bump into him someday

10 June 44

Dear Sis:

Received your Cigars 8-day. They come in mighty handy for they are hard to get. We have been having a lot of cool cloudy weather. In fact we were over in Wales and down near had to swim out. Surprising enough we are far enough north that our nights are short. We have twilight until almost midnight of course we are ahead of time due to our war time, but it is now 9 o'clock in the evening and I am sitting in my tent writing this. The sun is still up.

What do you hear from Cy + Mable?
Is Cy still depressed?

I can well imagine that you are watching the papers for big things are happening.

Midge keeps me pretty well posted on all information that she gets.

We had a dance last evening given by the officers of this Regiment.

and the rest was when my Commanding officer and myself were invited over to 307 — —— ~~at~~ home for dinner. He lives in a little shack of around 100 odd rooms and the down thing is lined from one end to the other with paintings of all the old ancestors. The dining room was about the size of ~~an~~ town hall in Banoroff. The old boy was stiff as hell until we began to tap his Scotch whisky. After a couple he broke down and became quite friendly.
I enjoyed the evening very much.

yesterday I was ~~and~~ on a reconnaissance during the day I saw the remains of an old Castle it looked like a fairing.
With out a doubt this Country is beautiful in the spring.

Well I must close my request well be on the next page

Dear Sis and Family:

Well here I am in Mury of England.
I received your 1st letter Fri and your 2nd yesterday. I certainly will be glad to get the Readers Digest and its Paper.
I sent them a change of address Card, but haven't received any copies since I left the States.

We had rather an interesting trip over, but I think I will enjoy the one back a whole lot more.

I was fortunate enough to get up into high society on 2 occasions already, but that will probably be all my time.

Has Tommy been getting any pheasants with my Rifle or has his granddad borrowed it from him?

I think she is in New York now and then plans on going to Philadelphia and perhaps to Boston and Baltimore or she may have started the trip in reverse order. I haven't heard from her yet. She came East as far as Baltimore so she may still be there. When she gets back to Henderson she and Tub Browns wife (Roma) plan on starting back to settle ~~the~~ They may go the northern route, but I think they will be a lot wiser to go south thru Arizona. I am afraid they would strike bad weather in the mountains if they went up thru Colorado.

We had several parties before leaving Henderson so my "stock" is down to 1 pt of Old Grand Dad 1 of Canadian Club 1 of Kentucky Tavern 1/2 of P M. I didn't drink it all.

3 April 44

Dear Sis:

just a note to give you my change of address in case my card hasn't reached you yet.

I am somewhere on the East Coast. I don't know how long it will take my letters to reach you or yours to reach me.

I didn't send too many change of address cards out so I would appreciate it if you would send my new address on to Fat's, Verns, Cy, and Dad. I think I sent one to the Melings.

Midge is doing ~~a~~ a little traveling before she starts to the Coast.

up much longer. Although I don't think the Country ~~is~~ will ever fall like it did in the last war I think we are fighting a war of occupation right now. I think we will have to occupy the whole country by force and hold it the same way.

I am sorry to hear that you couldn't make the trip to the coast, ~~but~~ I will be stopping in when we go through if they don't ship us to the C.B.I. crates before we have a chance to breathe.

Pass my letters on the news I am o.k. on I don't expect to write. I do well to get one off to Midge more than once or twice a week.

Dear Sis & Family:

Just a note to let you know I am O.K. I don't have much time to write to anyone now days for when we are pushing we go right and day catching a cat nap when we can. You get so damn tired you loose all sense of time dates and days. I hope that it ends soon. When you get that tired you get careless, and that's what I did the other day and damn near got mine from a snipe. I think I learned my lesson and it won't happen again from now on. Shoot first and ask questions latter. They are a dirty sneaking bunch of rotten bastards. They are whipped and know it but still keep on fighting. Well one consolation. They can't keep it war attles. An American never will understand how these people think or how to treat them. We are as different from the people here (except the Germans) as day and night.

Enough bitching for one night.

Love
Terry.

P.S. I hope to be home in time to use those shotgun shells.

always from a month to six weeks and longer in reaching me.

How is Wanda's husband getting along? He has a reason to be pitched off for the gov's worst kid, but I doubt if he has seen men in a condition ~~of~~ of some Tommies that <sup>my son</sup> helped free. They had been prisoners since Africa. I figure any one getting out with his health was lucky as hell.

Don't take those concentration camps lightly. News papers and movies can't begin to describe them all they are are pictures. I have a pretty strong stomach and have seen a lot of horrible things but by god that turned me inside out.

Nope the longer I stay over here the more I wonder just what the hell this

I am really seeing this God for enough so I won't have to come back.

I got a letter or a note from Army Peterson the other day requesting me to fill out a form for the Steb sending light, helping hand or something of the sort. What the hell has Army gone off the deep end?

I would have filled it out and returned it but unfortunately I lost track of the ship. Not that I want the magazine, paper or what ever it was. So if, when you see ~~here~~, you will tell her I lost the ship, but you don't think it would pay to send it because I may be coming home in Nov. in and papers are very slow in coming. The Re Gmt news is

Dear Sis, Geo & Kede:

It seems as though I have a hell of a time settling down long enough to write a letter but I make a stab at it whenever possible.

Since I have been in Division
Hqs I have been traveling a lot Last week on Mon I flew to another div Hqs near Bregenz then on Tues I flew to Salzburg and to Linz. both of which are in Austria then on Wed. up into Czechoslovakia and on Thurs I flew down to a town near Munich. Fri I come up to Pilsen for a few days to arrange some business with another division I expect to finish and return to Division tomorrow so I can take a day leave to the longer range.

Good Night for now
Terry

I guess the best way to describe it would be to say we do everything that would be prohibited in the States.

I have drunk more champagne than I ever saw in America.

I got a little hot one day a couple of months ago and cleared up around $1400<sup>00</sup>. What a time for a couple of weeks until I counted up and only had around $1000<sup>00</sup> left so I started sending some home to Midge. I sent her about $700<sup>00</sup> and kept enough for a couple of parties.

I am going to look for another game one of these nights and see what happens. Don't mention this to Midge as he still is in the dark about where the extra dough come from.

We are entitled to wear 3 battle stars on our Campaign ribbon, and I have been given the Bronze star not much of an award about as low as they come, but it brings packed ready for mailing if I ever get the chance. It is

It looks like this damn thing might drag out for some time. I understand that the people back home had the war won when we were don't see how they can be so

We will probably be here until around the Incidentally, if you should get any letters

I wrote a Note the other day and mentioned that I had received your two letters.

No I didn't receive a Red Cross kit. They were only for the enlisted men. They did serve coffee and doughnuts when we got on the boat and again when we got off I also got a package of cigarettes donated by the American Legion of Nashua, down. The last I heard from Midge she was having some trouble in Nevada. I haven't heard from her since, but I certainly hope everything is O.K.

Just a note to let you know I am OK. and to caution you to look at my new address. I am at Division Hqs in the 2-3 sector. I have been trying to get into Military Government. I don't know how I will come out. This is a better job than I had but the same type of work. The thing I like about it is my pay is a little less. Changes of clothing were very hard work, but that don't bother me a bit as I've had enough. I certainly hope this damn thing ends soon.

Frank Tyrrell

Frank "Terry" Tyrrell, 79, died on July 31 on Mercer Island, where he had lived since 1956. He was born on June 12, 1915, in Bancroft, S.D.

He moved to Seattle from South Dakota in 1940, and was a teaching fellow in the Botany Department at the University of Washington, where he met and later married "Midge" Tyrrell in January of 1942.

In March of 1942, Mr. Tyrrell went into the U.S. Army, serving in the European theater. He participated in five major battles and was decorated with the ETO ribbon with five Battle Stars, Combat Infantry Badge, Presidential Unit citation, Bronze Star with Oakleaf Cluster.

Mr. Tyrrell worked in the plywood and lumber industry, first at the Elliot Bay Mill Co., and later for Seattle Plywood and Door Co. He worked primarily with Philippine mahogany.

As a sales manager with Elliott Bay Mill Co., he was required to travel extensively in the United States from 1948 until 1956. In recent years he was involved in the import and export of logs, lumber and veneer, traveling to Canada, Central America and the Orient.

In addition to his wife, Maywood "Midge" Tyrrell, he is survived by his son, George Tyrrell of Silverdale; and a son, Mark, and his wife, Mojuana Tyrrell of Bothell. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

As Mr. Tyrrell requested, services were not held. Memorials may be sent to the American Heart Association, Washington Affiliate, 4414 Woodland Park Ave. N., Seattle, 98103; Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center, 1124 Columbia St., Seattle 98104; or Multiple Sclerosis Association of King County, 753 N. 35th St., Suite 208, Seattle 98103.
