In the matter of the claim for Pension of William H. Kelings, No. 425138, Co. E. 2, Iowa Vols. On this 25th day of April A.D. 1888 personally appeared before me, a Notary Public and for said County and State aforesaid duly authorized to administer oaths:

William H. Kelings aged 47 years, whose Post Office address is at Monona, Iowa, well known to me to be respectable and entitled to credit and who being by me first sworn, deposes and says that he is the claimant in above cited case and states that his general debility from which he suffered constantly since his discharge from service is resulting from typhoid fever, cholera, diarrhea, piles rheumatism and inflammation of the stomach and liver, which was contracted at Lake Muck Indian Agency, during the summer of 1862, from which he is suffering and from which he has suffered year by year since his discharge and return home from service to present date.

On this 17th. day of February A. D. 1888, personally appeared before me a Notary Public within and for the county and State aforesaid, William H. Kellogg, a resident of Monona, county of Clayton State of Iowa, who being duly sworn, according to law says:

My diseases were contracted while on the march to and from Mollack or Indian Agency Minn. during the month of October 1862, caused by exposure on said march and bad and improper rations. I had all the symptoms of fever on the latter part of said march. My Regt. was ordered after the march, to Memphis Tenn. where I was taken down with Typhoid fever. sometime during the first part of November 1862, as near as I can remember, was sick about six weeks, and when I recovered from the fever I was left with diarrhea, piles and rheumatism.
